defer salary, pension payment

get salaries and no government can take it away." The Telangana High Court, hearing a petition related to stoppage of pensions two days ago, observed that the State government can't touch the pensions unless it declared Financial Emergency.

Ordinance

The Telangana Disaster and Public Health Emergency (Special Provisions) Ordinance, 2020, seeks to get immunity from other laws, rules or code or judgement or any court or tribunal. "It shall be competent and lawful for the Government to defer the pay, pension or remuneration in part, not exceeding one half of the total monthly pay," it said.

The purview of the Ordinance would also cover payments to staff in aided colleges, schools, local bodies, universities and corporations.

The Government will issue a notification within six months, indicating how it is going to repay the deferred payments.
