GOODWILL GESTURE OF KIOCL LIMITED ON COVID-19 PANDEMIC.

KIOCL Limited, (a Govt. of India Enterprise), under Ministry of Steel, a port based EOU is currently in the business of Iron Ore Pelletization in the State of Karnataka. KIOCL has always been a front-runner in its obligations towards Corporate Social Responsibility. It's been helping the needy people immediately whenever they are in crises due to Natural Calamity.

In its continuous quest to contribute towards fight against COVID-19, KIOCL Limited, under the guidance of Shri Dharmendra Pradhan, Hon'ble Union Minister of PNG & Steel, is working on 24x7 basis to extend support to the needy people especially migrant workers, contract workers, people below the poverty line to combat the hurdles faced by them due to lockdown measures announced by Govt. of India.

Shri M V Subba Rao, Chairman-cum-Managing Director informed that the Company has contributed Rs.10.10 Crores and one day salary collectively by all the employees amounting to Rs.23.72 lakhs to PM CARES Fund. He also informed that Rs.15.00 Lakhs has been contributed to Karnataka CM Relief Fund to fight against COVID-19 pandemic. In addition to the above, he also mentioned that, as per the Appeal of the Deputy Commissioner, Dakshina Kannada District, an amount of Rs.4.46 lakhs has been deposited to Food Corporation of India towards procurement of 200 Quintals of rice, for providing food to migrant labourers, located in different areas of Dakshina Kannada District.

In order to minimize exposure to infections that could cause serious illness, KIOCL Limited distributed PPEs such as Face-masks, Sanitizers, hand-gloves, food packets etc., to the needy people at Bengaluru and Mangaluru areas. KIOCL Ltd., also sponsored grocery items and distributed to BPL card holders at Mukka area, near Mangaluru. A helping hand was also extended to "Samvedhana", a home for destitute at Mangalure by sponsoring monthly grocery items and PPEs to children.

KIOCL Ltd., in association with LIONS, Kudremukh, distributed food-grains to the poor contract workers, deployed at the KIOCL Township, Kavoov and at the Pellet Plant, Mangalore. The Officers Association of KIOCL distributed face masks to labourers staying at the Labour colony, at Kavoov area, Mangalore. Further, Kudremukh Mazdoor Sangh, the Recognized union at KIOCL, distributed the provision/grocery items to the needy contract workers, deployed at KIOCL units at Panambur. The SC/ST Association of KIOCL Ltd., also distributed the grocery items to the needy people residing at the Bondel/ Kavoov areas of Mangalore. At Corporate Office, Bengaluru, grocery items were distributed to all Contract labourers, Security personnel.

To support our community at Mangaluru during lockdown, KIOCL Ltd., volutarily extended free food services to all its employees and contractor workers as well as to Govt. officials like Police personnel, who were on official duty at Kuloor, Kavoov and nearby areas & also to MESCOM employees, who were working at Sub-station near the main entrance of Pellet Plant Unit, Panambur, Mangalore for entire lockdown period
